Chesapeake Campus Library Webpage

Did you know that each of the TCC libraries has their own page in addition to the TCC Library Homepage? This is the home of those details that are particular to that campus library. Click on the drop-down menu under Campus Libraries and give Chesapeake a look!

Home: Note of welcome/outreach to the campus community, important announcements, contact information, and library hours.

Library Staff: Staff photos and contact information

For Faculty: Collection development policy and contacts; information for scheduling class instruction, including an online form. Paper forms are available in the library. How can we help you?

Displays/Events: Events sponsored by the library and displays to enlighten and educate our library community. Current and archive files available.

Newsletters: The current newsletter is on our Home tab. You can re-read an item or revisit a helpful hint by visiting our newsletter archive.

Are you a faculty member interested in learning more about Open Educational Resources (OER)? Contact Olivia Reinauer, TCC’s OER Team Leader, for information and opportunities.

Library Webpage: Research Help

Do you ever find yourself at home or away from the library and need library research help? While one of our best resources is our staff and their willingness to help in a face-to-face session with you, we do offer options for when a face-to-face meeting is not possible.

Option 1: Go to the Library Homepage, scroll to the bottom and click on one of the links under “For Students” or “Need Help?” A variety of helpful information is located here.

Option 2: Research Guides: From the Library Homepage, click on Research Guides. You can search guides by subject, or from the subject search you have the option to view all those available.

Research Guides are created by library staff in a variety of subjects to assist with research assignments.

Each guide will offer a selection of organizational tabs to assist with locating materials: books, videos, articles, websites, associations, citing and evaluating sources, etc. Not only can you find suggestions of where to search, but also terms and tricks to make your search more productive.

Option 3: Ask A Librarian: This is an opportunity to “meet” with a librarian 24/7 online. While the librarian you chat with may not always be a TCC librarian, you will be professionally interviewed and assisted with your research questions. This is a viable option when a face-to-face meeting opportunity is unavailable.
