Welcome to the Library

“Do what you can, with what you have, where you are.” ~ Theodore Roosevelt

Welcome to 2019 – a new year of promise and infinite possibilities! The Chesapeake Campus Library is here to assist you in your academic endeavors. It is our pleasure to do so! Please stop by and let us know how we can help you.

Black History Month – February 1-28, 2019
Theme: “Black Migrations”

Black Migration…”emphasizes the movement of people of African descent to new destinations and subsequently to new social realities. While inclusive of earlier centuries, this theme focuses especially on the twentieth century through today.” www.asalh.org

Watch for our Library Displays for Black History Month.

Also, we have Library Research Guides that may be of special help and interest during this time.

Database Highlights: (List of Databases:  https://libguides.tcc.edu/az.php)

Digital Theater + (good for students of both English & the Performing Arts)

Offers a variety of information on authors and their works—documents, study/teaching guides, and clips or full productions of some works. You can search by author or production name.

Example: Death of a Salesman by Arthur Miller

Director’s notebook entry, the production in full video, study guide (info on plot, characters, theme, etc.), a concise introduction to Author Miller, a revision guide and a teaching toolkit.

Social Explorer (spotlighting history and demographic changes per location from 1790 to present)

Example: Virginia

Demographic information based on race, age, foreign or native born, education levels, economic changes, marital and fertility statistics, languages spoken, income ranges, crime data, election data, business trends, etc. Exhaustive information presented in table and graph formats.

We frequently receive NEW books and DVDs. Look for our display to check out what we may have recently received. You might be pleasantly surprised by what you find here! Included are both academic and pleasure reading books and DVDs.

Also, on the shelf to the left of this New Book display is our Popular Collection. You can easily spot this collection by the green band across the bottom of the book spine. This is a special collection of books--mostly best sellers, popular fiction, and current authors--for your pleasure reading enjoyment! The collection steadily changes and grows.
